

SOCIETY.

LOCAL NEWS.

L. and C. Whist.

The Ladies' and Gentlemen's Whist Club was entertained last Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Will Keynes. Whist prizes were taken by Mrs. F. F. Rempel and Dr. Apin. Cards were followed by an elaborate supper. Miss Mary J. Jones, of New Straitsville, and Miss Emma Westenhaver were club visitors.

Odd Numbers.

The Odd Numbers had a soiree Saturday night, celebrating the anniversary of their worthy president, Mr. Samuel Voris. A sumptuous spread, in honor of the occasion, was prepared by Mrs. and Miss Voris. Club guests were Dr. Frank Wright and Messrs. John Wright and Ed. Doebele.

Twice Five

The Twice Five Club had their regular meeting Monday evening, with Rev. and Mrs. T. B. White. On the subject for the evening, "Public Ownership of Public Utilities," excellent papers, for and against, respectively, were read by Messrs. E. O. Pettit and John F. White. The papers were followed by an interesting and animated discussion of this live topic. Besides club members Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Tipton, Miss Ruth Brooke, Mr. Will Brooke, Mrs. George Reynolds, of Athens, and Mrs. Frank Harrington, of Columbus, were present.

Tourist Club.

The Tourists met last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. C. Tipton. The subject for the meeting was "The Arts." Mrs. John Smith read a very interesting paper on the Roycrofters and their work; Mrs. Smith also exhibited several specimens of Roycroft books and other matter, from the library of Mr. John Dougherty. Mrs. J. W. Beem gave a talk on Women Photographers that was listened to with much pleasure. Mrs. Silverthorne read to the ladies the poem of James Whitcomb Riley, on Fame. The musical program of the afternoon consisted of vocal solos by Mrs. Weitzel, and piano duets by Mesdames C. E. Bowen and H. R. Harrington. The program was followed by an elegant lunch. Mrs. E. O. Pettit, Mrs. Fred Bright, Mrs. S. C. Bright and Mrs. Price were club guests.

The annual election of officers of the club will be made at the next meeting, to be held Thursday, March 22, at the home of Mrs. Weitzel.

St. Patrick's Day.

Mrs. I. J. Lindley will give a St. Patrick's Day party, Saturday evening.

Bowling Party.

A pleasant time was spent last Thursday evening by a party of young people, at the Brunswick Bowling Alleys. For several of the bowlers it was a first experience, but some creditable scores were rolled. Several experienced some difficulty for a few days afterwards in walking down stairs. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Bright, Mr. and Mrs. Dill Sandersen, the Misses Rochester, Ruth Brooke, Mame Campbell, and Ruth Henderson, and Messrs. Meade Bowen and Irving Krieg.

Engagement Announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight R. Herrick, of Price Hill, announce the engagement of their daughter, Laura Elizabeth, to Rev. Harry B. Vail, of Delhi, Ohio.

The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune of March 8, contained the above announcement. Rev. Vail is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Vail, of East Hunter street, Logan.

Reception.

Mrs. R. D. McManigal has cards out for a reception this afternoon from four to six.

Euterpeans.

The Euterpean Club held their March meeting, Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. G. C. Weitzel. An interesting miscellaneous program was rendered, comprising piano duets by Mesdames Wright, Bowen, and Harrington, vocal solos by Mrs. Weitzel, Miss Robin Rochester, and Mrs. Blasius, and vocal duets by Mrs. McKay and Miss Dollison, and Mrs. McKay and Miss Brooke. Visitors for the evening were Mrs. Sarah James, Mrs. C. N. Bowen, Mrs. Vallie Wright and Miss Tracy.

Little Six.

Mrs. Fred Rochester was hostess of the Little Six, Saturday evening, with cards and lunch.

Afternoon Whist.

The Saturday Afternoon Whist Club will have a St. Patrick's party and picnic supper this week at the home of Mrs. Helen Bowen.

Ball Club Meets.

Manager Nick Shorr, of the Logan Base Ball Club, called the boys together Sunday afternoon, to talk over the coming season, and see what material is on hand. Fourteen good players are available, and there is every prospect of an unprecedented base ball season in Logan. Manager Shorr will have his contracts prepared in a few days, and the personnel of the team can probably be announced by next week.

Hot tea and coffee served by Mrs. Daisy B. Waite, March 15, 16 and 17. Call and be presented with a Japanese Fan for the ladies and doll for the babies. A. C. Tipton

Iagoo cures Catarrh.

Judge Wright was in Columbus on business Monday.

Clarence Kyle of Columbus, was a Sunday visitor in Logan.

Iagoo cures Dyspepsia.

Mrs. Karne Ferguson spent several days this week in Columbus.

Mr. Chas. Krieg of Columbus, visited relatives here Friday.

Iagoo, the Best Spring Tonic.

Mr. Robert Kanode of Lancaster spent Sunday at home here.

Fred Ambrose, of Nelsonville was a visitor here Sunday.

Henry Hartman, of Oreville, was in Logan Monday on business.

Val McGee, of Logan spent Sunday with his mother at Vinton.

We are ready with fresh new Garden Seeds, Bort & Co. the Druggists.

Miss Zella Schwenke is visiting her sister Nell, in Columbus, this week.

Messrs. Joe Krishbaum and John Acker spent Sunday in Nelsonville.

Fresh, reliable garden seeds in bulk at Case's store.

Iagoo gives you an appetite.

Mr. H. G. Hensel was a business visitor in Gloucester, Saturday.

Conductor James Bartoe is on the sick list.

C. T. Stephenson spent Sunday with relative at Straitsville.

FOR SALE—A six-room house, good condition. Inquire of J. W. Gabriel.

March 20 at the Opera House, Porter J. White's magnificent Company in "Faust."

Phil Wolf, of Oreville, was a business visitor in Logan Saturday.

Mr. Del Sherrard, of Fultonham, spent Friday and Saturday in Logan.

Edward Bishop who has been on the sick list the last two weeks is some better.

Business on the H. V. and Straitsville branch is flourishing at the present.

At Case's store you always get reliable garden seeds at lowest prices.

Miss Grace Downey returned last week after a visit in Columbus.

Be sure to see the great Broken Scene in "Faust" at the Opera House next Tuesday March 20.

Mr. S. S. Ruble made a business trip to Vinton, Gallia County, Saturday, returning Monday.

Special Japanese Souvenirs given to purchasers of Chase & Saneborn celebrated high grade teas and coffees, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week at Tipton's.

Rochester-Lytle Company

would be pized to have the honor of your riverint prvince at their opening Saturday afternoon, March 15, 1906, in memory of St. Phadrig and their 4th anniversary. Every one coming will receive a thistle of green to extinguish himself from the others.

Mrs. George Reynolds, of Athens is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John F. White.

Mrs. Walter Rochester and Mrs. Fred Rochester were Columbus visitors one day last week.

Mrs. F. Harrington, of Columbus, is the guest of Mrs. H. R. Harrington this week.

FOR SALE.—A good farm west of Logan, at a bargain. Call on or address Riley Glass, Logan, O.

Mr. Lawrence Gano, of Athens was in Logan from Friday till Sunday.

Miss Elizabeth Cochran, of Union Furnace, was the guest of Miss Flossie Jadin, Saturday.

Miss Vivian Wells, of Nelsonville were the guest of Logan friends. Thursday night and Friday.

Miss Frieda Armstrong was a Nelsonville visitor Saturday night and Sunday.

Joseph F. Smith, violin instructor, Prices reasonable. Residence opposite Gompf's green house.

Purity and accuracy our motto. New Opera House Drug Store.

Miss Hattie Walburn, of Weston was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shotwell, Saturday.

Mr. Fred Collins has accepted a position as furnisher in a furniture factory in Marion, and left for that city, Sunday.

Messrs. Will Gaffney and Roy Raney started Monday for Dante West Virginia, where they will be occupied on a surveying contract for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Tennyhill and son, of Nelsonville, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. I. I. Kinser.

Mrs. Louisa Hartmann is in Lancaster this week with her mother, Mrs. Fismar, who is very ill.

Candies, cigars, tobacco at the New Opera House Drug Store.

Mr. A. E. Huls and children returned on Monday from Rockbridge, where they have been visiting relatives for two weeks.

Joe Saveny night foreman of the Logan yards, reported for duty Monday after being off sick for a week.

Mrs. A. L. Cochran, of Union Furnace, spent Sunday evening with friends here, after visiting in Haydensville for the day.

Spring is coming and you will want fresh garden seeds. You can get the best at Case's store.

Mr. James Kimberling, of Des Moines, Iowa was calling on Logan friends over Sunday. Mr. Kimberling was formerly in here. He has been in Iowa for several years.

Mrs. Dora Wakely and daughter-in-law, are visiting Jacob Fox and family, Mr. Tom Wakely spent Sunday here, returning to Lancaster that evening.

The public is cordially invited to visit our store March 15, 15 and 17 and 17 and inspect our line of The Famous Chase & Saneborn's Teas and Coffee. Hot tea and coffee served each day. Souvenirs. A. C. Tipton

JUST FOR A WEEK

Commencing Friday, March 16, Erding Friday March 23d.

The first shot from Springs Bargain Guns and the report will be heard all over the length and breadth of Logan. "This ad tells the story that says you money." A Thurness-Wright Co. bargain is something real. How well the public know and appreciate the truth—But read carefully every line of this announcement. The time is short; one week of bargain temptations. Hasten your footsteps for the crowds will be here. Try and get in the front rank.

GROUND FLOOR PROPOSITIONS.

We Bought Them Early That's Why We Can Quote Such Prices on These.

Ingrain carpets good 28c values, Sale price from Friday, March 16 to Friday, March 23	22c
Heavy Ingrain Carpets good 38c values, Sale price from Friday, March 16 to Friday, March 23	28c
Strictly all wool Carpets good 65c values, Sale price from Friday, March 16 to Friday, March 23	50c
Tapestry Brussels Carpets good 75c values, Sale price from Friday, March 16 to Friday, March 23	60c
Tapestry Druggets 9x12 $12.50 values, Sale price from Friday, March 16 to Friday, March 23	$10.00
Velvet Druggets 9x12 $18.00 values, Sale price from Friday, March 16 to Friday, March 23	$14.00
Axminster Druggets 9x12 $25.00 values, Sale price from Friday, March 16 to Friday, March 23	$20.00

Here we are on the threshold of Spring and that room needs a new Carpet badly. What a royal money saving opportunity this is, and then an announcement like this from Thurness-Wright Co. means something—that's what makes it all the more interesting to the "one behind the pocketbook."

Wait a Minute we must not forget to tell you about a

Lot of Odds and Ends in Curtains

Consisting of 1 and 1 1/2 and 2 pairs of a kind. Good materials, new patterns. Here they go for one week at One-Half Price

One Special Lot of Hamburg Embroideries and Insertions.

On Sale Friday and Saturday, March 16 and 17 Only.

Perhaps 2000 yards all told, good patterns and edges, widths 2 to 13 inches, now read this carefully, per yd. 10c

We limit the amount to 10 yards to a customer—have to do it so as to give everybody a chance. Hurry up—they will go like the proverbial hot cakes.

SEPARATE SKIRTS

Common sense fashions find most devotees—the demand for separate skirts never was so large as now. No need to tell you how much you can save, in buying a ready made skirt here, rather than have a dressmaker make it. READ ON—One lot black mercerized Petticoats 3 1/2 to 4 1/2 in lengths, deep shirred flounce, accordin plaited ruffle, gofred top and French seams, good values at $1.25, our price for this sale 95c.

Every Ladies' Dress Skirt in Stock at One-Fourth off Regular Price.

It were useless to elaborate on this matter. You know our policy is "As we advertise so we do" there are no disappointments here.

SPRING SHIPMENTS

Are arriving daily, the newest, daintiest and exclusive creations in Spring Jackets, tight fitting or pony style. Dress Fabrics and everything in springtime needs are at our door waiting for position in this the largest and most complete stock that ever filled a Logan dry goods house. There are no "Left Overs" with which so many stores are crowded, but the brightest products of spring 1906, creations await your inspection and approval. There is a close partnership between this store and Logan shoppers, and that partnership never shared in a store so lavishly interesting as is this store today.

COME AND SEE.

The Thurness-Wright Co

Paints, brushes, varnishes, enamels. We have them. Opera House drug store.

Mr. Arley Stallsmith city sales man for the McCauley, wholesale Millinery establishment, in Columbus, spent Sunday in Logan visiting his mother, Sarah Stallsmith.

Mr. R. S. Harper spent Sunday in Logan, having played in Wells-ton on the previous evening. He left Monday morning for Gallipolis. The company he is with will make a tour through the South.

Mr. Abner Spencer, of East Bowen Street who had a light shock of a paralytic nature, early last week has recovered from the effects of his illness. Mr. Spencer is a Civil War veteran and is seventy two years old.

Miss Rose Stalter visited her mother here over Sunday, returning to Somerset in the following day. Mrs. Stalter and her daughter Ella leave next week for Somerset where they will reside. Mr. John Stalter and family also expect to move to Somerset about April 1.

Father Horan, of Shawnee, is conducting the mid-week Lenten services at St. John's Church, Wednesdays, in the absence of Father Richards, who is still at the home of his sick mother in New York. Services last Sunday were conducted by Fr. Healy from the New St. Patrick's College, in Columbus, who will be here again next Sunday.

Once in a life time witness part of the Civil War in one night.

Special services at the U. B. Church next Sunday. R. A. Powell, Pastor.

"Irene the Rebel Spy" was captured last night. At Opera House, Friday, March 16.

Mrs. J. Unger and son Francis, were in Gibsonville, Friday, to attend the funeral of the former's father, Mr. John Hagley, of Laurelville.

All money refunded at the end of the third act to those who are the least dissatisfied with Porter J. White's production of "Faust" at the Opera House next Tuesday evening March 20.

Miss Parson's millinery opening is on Saturday next. Rooms in the store of Rochester-Lytle Co.

Andy Marks was the means of stopping what threatened to be a disastrous runaway last Friday morning. The team started from Keynes mill and ran up the alley to Main Street. As they wheeled into Main Andy seized the near horse, and succeeded in stopping them after being dragged a few yards.

Millinery opening next Saturday at Miss M. N. Parsons, with Rochester-Lytle Co.

Three thousand dollars reward for "Irene the Rebel Spy."

T. C. Carter, of Chattanooga, Tenn., will lecture at First U. B. Church, Friday evening March 23, 1906.—Matrimonial Mistakes—Union 25cts, children 15cts.

The Salary Bill.

The salary bill, as it passed the house, provides for a uniform salary based upon population, its terms being as follows:

"Auditors, treasurers and probate judges to receive as compensation $100 for each full 1000 of the first 15,000 of the population of a county; $65 for each full 1000 of the second 15,000 of population, $55 for the third 15,000, $45 for the fourth 15,000, $35 for the fifth 15,000, $25 for the sixth 15,000 and $5 for each full 1000 of population over 75,000, as shown by the last federal census preceding the election. The county clerks receive $70 for each full 1000 of the first 15,000 of the population, which schedule is reduced by $10 for each additional 15,000 up to 75,000, and $5 is allowed for each full 1000 over that figure. The sheriff's receive $65 for each full 1000 of the first 15,000, the schedule being reduced by $10 for each additional 1000 up to 75,000 population, when the $5 schedule applies. The recorders receive $60 for each full 1000 of the first 15,000 of the population, which schedule is reduced by $10 for each additional 1000 up to 75,000, after which the $5 schedule applies." Hocking county, with a population of 26,000 in round numbers, will provide the following salaries:

Auditor	$2215
Treasurer	2215
Probate Judge	2215
Clerk	1710
Sheriff	1710
Recorder	30